The project is named in honor of Dale Louis Shebilsky, a World War II veteran who served in the United States Army Air Forces. Shebilsky was a decorated veteran who received the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal. After the war, he dedicated his life to serving veterans and their families.

The Dale Louis Shebilsky Arizona Veteran Legacy Project was founded in 2004 by a group of veterans and community leaders. The project's mission is to:

- Preserve the legacy of Arizona's veterans through education and outreach programs.
- Provide support and resources to veterans and their families.
- Recognize the contributions of veterans to Arizona and the nation.

The project has a number of programs and initiatives that help it fulfill its mission. These include:

- The Arizona Veterans Oral History Project, which collects and preserves the stories of Arizona veterans.
- The Arizona Veterans Memorial, a traveling exhibit that honors the service and sacrifice of Arizona's veterans.
- The Arizona Veterans Legacy Fund, which provides financial assistance to veterans and their families.
- The Arizona Veterans Recognition Program, which recognizes the contributions of veterans to Arizona and the nation.
