The Mysterious Disappearance of Maura Murray

On the evening of February 9, 2004, 21-year-old Maura Murray vanished into thin air. Her car was found abandoned on Route 112 in Haverhill, New Hampshire, with the engine running and the keys in the ignition. It had crashed into a snowbank, and there were signs that she had been drinking. But what happened to Maura after that? No one knows for sure.

The case of Maura Murray has captivated true crime enthusiasts for years. There have been countless theories about what happened to her, but none have been proven. Some believe that she was murdered, while others believe that she committed suicide. Still others believe that she simply walked away from her life and started over.

The Investigation
